

Tanzania & 30 Days Of Prayer

May 11th, 2008

For The Nation Of Tanzania

- Leadership with integrity at all levels of government.
- Leadership with vision, able to recognize economic, educational, and social opportunities
- Insight into the root causes of their problems
- That nation's eyes will be open to the Truth of the Gospel
- For continued open doors for Christian ministry to this nation
- Specific favor from the government leaders at all levels for this mission

For Key Connections Ministries (McFarlands Ministry)

- Issuance of our new residence permits
- Certification of KCM as a Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) with tax and duty exemption
- Access to new resources for the African church
- Understanding of the best possible resources to meet the real needs of the church
- Effective communication of our mission during our furlough
- More harvesters for this mission: short and long term
- Wisdom for ourselves and our board as we consider important issues in the coming weeks
- Replacement of financial support from some of our long supporters who are no longer able to continue at previous levels, as well as increased support to make more resources available
- Blessing and wisdom to those who coordinate and oversee the use of the resources across East Africa
- Understanding of the God's exact intentions for the scope and dynamics of this mission
- Positive relationships with national pastors and churches, and with other missionaries and missions

Steve & Marty McFarlands (Our Missionaries)

- Continued health and stamina
- Efficient preparations for our furlough in the fall of 2008
- Good extended family times while we are in the US
- Safety as we travel here and in the US
- Time for rest and reflection during a brief and busy furlough
- Wisdom in choosing priorities for our time, money, our relationships

All Teams Working With McFarlands

- Good preparation for their mission spiritually and physically
- Opportunities for significant sharing with families, friends, and supporters
- Openness to God's leading
- Complete protection and blessing
- Effective communication with us, each other, those met in travel, and with those to be served
- Freedom from all kinds of fears
- Wisdom in understanding cultural differences and in reacting to needs
- Changed lives
- Blessings on the West Side (Wichita) team that will follow June 18 – July 5

For The Crossroads Congregation And Other Supporters

- Increased awareness and interest of the great needs of the Africa and its Church
- Increased conviction of personal responsibility to fulfill Jesus' commission
- A genuine sense of accomplishment for contributing to your team's ministry
- A hunger and keen desire to grow in relationship to the one true God
- A thankful heart for the many blessings too often taken for granted
- Safety when traveling
- Getting all shots and vaccinations
